

One look at this beautifully maintained one bedroom charmer and you will fall in love with its modest design and functional layout. The owners have presented this home in perfect condition with an eye for detail that will captivate you. The outstanding features include an accessible kitchen, combo bathroom with ample space for shower, toilet and washing machine. It has been equipped with solar hot water service and solar electricity panels internal fans and split a/c. Outside is a secluded, enclosed rear patio whilst the front verandah overlooks a large peaceful green space.